Product Description

Ultra Soft Thermal Pad is one of our latest high-performance silicone gap pads with a thermal conductivity of 1 W/mk. It is highly conformable with a Shore 00 Hardness of 25. Ultra Soft Thermal Pad is formulated to achieve exceptional void filling between components and heat sinks with only a light amount of pressure and provides low thermal impedance for the most demanding of applications, including high speed networks and servers. TG-AD75 can be supplied in either standard sheets or custom die-cut parts.
